Next Year, 2010, marks a significant milestone in Methodism here in Dominica and throughout the Caribbean. We will be observing and commemorating the 250th year of this vital spiritual fellowship of our region.

This will be an historic event in our lives and heritage as a Christian society and it is expected that we will all become involved and play our part.

Brothers and Sisters, from time to time you will be updated on preparation and plans commemorate this milestone and we anticipate the assistance and cooperation of ALL to make this event a memorable one.
